MISS KEARNEY IN TRIUMPH.

TAKES THE DASH STAKES IN FAST TIME WITH SEA CLIFF A GOOD SECOND.

Half Sovereign Defeats Big Chief and Restigouche in the Ocean Handicap-Black, Mary a Surprise.

New York, September 3.—Two stakes, the Dash, for two-year-olds, and the Ocean Handicap, for three-year-olds and over, adorned today's excellent card at Sheepshead Bay. The former was captured by Miss Kearney in fast, time after a long and desperate closing struggle with Sea Cliff. The Madden filly only got up in the last stride of the closest finish of the meeting. The forward running of August Belmont's Field Mouse, which was burdened with the heavy impost of 124 pounds, was the outstanding feature of the race. Field Mouse ran the two lightly weighted leaders to a length, although conceding twenty-three pounds and seventeen pounds respectively. The remainder of the field, including Maddman, County Fair and Connaught Ranger, were beaten off.

The Dash Stakes was first run in 1887. Its tabled history shoce 1900 is shown below: Year. Winner. Wt. 1906key. Val. Time. 1960 Bellario 104 Maher $2.370 1:003 1901 Heno 104 T. election.

Sheriff Lane of Westchester County was a visitor at the course today. He said that he had received a letter of similar character to that sent to Sheriff Bradley at Saratoga, from a man who signed himself Shea, but whose identity was disclosed at the trial as a man by the name of Scott, employed as a private detective and sent to Saratoga by Mr. Elder.

self Shea, but whose identity was disclosed at the trial as a man by the name of Scott, employed as the trial as a man by the name of Scott, employed as Schuyler L. Parsons says that they race in Buenos Ayrs under French Jockey Club rules.

H. O. Bernard, a former turf celebrity, died here stody at the age of scenty-five.

Martin Brail a bookmaker, was served with a subpoena as a winter of the grounds.

Bistrict Attorney John F. Clarke of Kings County appeared at his office today after a three-months vacation in Europe and amounced that he was pleased with the trace track situation and with the work of Robert H. Elder, his chief assistant, and that Mr. Elder would handle the race track situation, as hitherto, Mr. Clarke expressed himself as pleased with the vigorous manner in which Mr. Elder, as acting district attorney, had handled the race track matters, and said that his chief assistant had that he would allow him to attend to that, as he did while his superior was in Europe.

Justice Gaynor's decision regarding individual betting between friends will be respected at Belmont Park and no arrests made for that cause. The law, however, will be unbeld and no bookmaking will be allowed inside of the grounds of the track.

At a meeting of the board of supervisors of Nassan County today, at which Sheriff Foster and District Attorney close were present, it was decided to meet the officials of the Westchester Racing Association and arrange to have the same conditions govern at Belmont Park as are being enforced at the Sheepslead Bay track. The expense to the county, should they have to place deputies at Belmont Park, would run into the thousands of dollars, and this the supervisors wish to avoid. The orders, however, of Governor Hughes will be carried out to the letter.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE FLATBUSH STAKES.

Because of one of its conditions, under which no horse can be forced to carry more than 120 pounds, the Flatbush is generally contested by winners of previously captured stakes of high value. It is a dash of seven furlongs at seven pounds below the scale, with a penalty limit of five pounds and an allowance for maidens of ten pounds. The penalty of five pounds is for winners of $5,000 after August 15, the practical effect this year being that Maskette is the only eligible that will have to carry this penalty if started. Madden's great stake winners, Sir Martin and Fayette, escape it because their successes were achieved prior to August 15. Helmet won the Hopeful Stakes on that exact date, so he also escapes.

The Flatbush will be run tomorrow and, oddly enough, it will be more valuable this lean racing year than at any other time in its history. Heretofore it has been a $10,000 guaranteed stake, of which the winner's portion was $8,500. This year, for the first time, it has $10,000 added and the winner will probably net something over that amount. So far as appearances go, Maskette, Helmet, Dick Roller, Fayette, Sir Martin and Trance may be set down as certain starters, with possible additionals in Strike Out, Emperor William, Persens, Torbellino, Harrigan, High Private, Fitz Herbert, Simcoe and County Fair. A very great race is in immediate prospect and by no means its least interesting feature will be the starting of Trance in competition with the proved best of the year.

The record of the Flatbush is as follows:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE CENTURY STAKES.

The Century is one of the three big stakes to be decided at Sheepshead Bay tomorrow. It is one of the two rich events established for stayers in commentoration of the advent of the year 1900, the other being the Annual Champion. The Century is a dash of a mile and a half for three-year-olds and over and is of the guaranteed value of $20,000, of which the winner's portion this year will be $15,650, which is $1,060 more than it netted Mr. Keene when Ballot won it last year. The gain is because of a reduction in the portions allotted to the second and third horses. The Century is a weight-for-age race, so no horse starts with any advantage or disadvantage in respect to weight carried. No horse has won the race twice, but Ballot will this year essay the task of being the first to do it and will be a hard horse to beat. Hessian, King James, Frank Gill, Standna and Firestone seem his most probable opponents. The record of this big race is:

Year. First. Age. Jockeys. Wt.	Second. Age. Wt.	Third. Age. Wt.	Val.	Time.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE AUTUMN STEEPLECHASE.

The Autumn is a steeplechase stake of short history. It was established and first run two years ago and was intended to be second in importance to no jumping race of this country, having an endowment of $7.000 in added money. Owing to the troubles that now beset eastern racing its value was cut down this year and its name reduced from the Great Autumn Steeplechase to plain Autumn Steeplechase. Its record is as follows:

RECORDS OF THE CANADIAN TRACKS.

The Canadian turf is a well-grown and still growing institution, popular, well-managed and profitable. Great progress in the way of well appointed race tracks has been made in the course of the last few years and the racing of this year at Toronto, Montreal, For this year and Hamilton has been of the most excellent description. One effect of the betterment of race tracks has been visible in the way of fast racing. Most of the Canadian tracks were formerly slow, but such is not the case today. All things considered, they now compare favorably in the matter of records with those of the United States. This is well shown by the following tabulation of Canadian track records to date:

YOUNG BROOMSTICKS IN HIGH FAVOR.

New York, September 3.—The following breeders were represented at today's sale of yearlings by the Faist-Tipton Company at their paddocks at Sheepshead Bay: Williams & Radford, Ward Clag-odds are not to be expected under present New York conditions.

This situation has been perfectly described by Daily Racing Form's New York correspondent, a careful, accurate newspaper man of long service and well known and regarded by the racing public. He wired last Saturday the following, which was printed in last Sunday's Daily Racing Form:

"The ban on betting was enforced so well that it was not possible for an occasional race-goer to place a wager. Not a single professional layer did business. No prices were quoted publicly. As a matter of fact, no market existed at the track, except such as was created through betting horse against horse between individuals. The prices quoted in the newspaper charts were based on and in some cases obstimed from the betting market in New York City where bookmakers, poolrooms and handbooks were in full blast. Schuyler L. Parsons, managing governor of the Coney Island Jockey Club, sent dozens of agents throughout the inclosure before every race with instructions to place bets wherever they could find a layer willing to accept them. It is on record that not one single wager was taken."

The odds so laid with such slight variations as occur through the difference of sources are printed daily in such reputable papers as the New York Herald, New York Sun, New York Telegraph and Cincinnati Enquirer.

STRIKE OUT A COSTLY DISAPPOINTMENT.

Mr. H. B. Duryea's Griffon—Pillowdex colt. Strike Out, seems to be a non-stayer of the lowest degree. He is a costly one, too. He cost Mr. Duryea $15,000, after showing great speed in his early trials. Fred Burlew sold bim for that price after buying him at the Carson sale in June, 1907, for $700. In the Duryea green and white, Strike Out has scored but one third in eight races and has earned $150.

WATERBURY A GAME FIRST.

CAPTURES THE ST. DENIS STAKES AT MON-TREAL AFTER A LONG, HARD DRIVE.

High Range Takes a Purse--Servile Defeats Miss Catesby-Chief Hayes Scores Again-Big Attendance a Feature.

Montreal. Que., September 3.—The St. Denis Stakes, at three-quarters of a mile, with selling conditions, and worth $1.195 net to the winner, was the best offering of the afternoon and furnished a spirited contest, victory going to R. F. Carman's Waterbury, making his first start since at Windsor, after a lengthy drive in the stretch to shake off the suddenly improved St. Jeanne, Botanist outstaying Please for third place. Waterbury, while fancied by his stable connections, advanced in the betting, Please, St. Jeanne, Superstition and Throckmorton, the latter being especially prepared for the race and shipped here from Toronto, being the most fancied.

after a lengthy drive in the stretch to shake off the suddenly improved St. Jeanne, Botanist outstaying Please for third place. Waterbury, while fancied by his stable connections, advanced in the betting, Please, St. Jeanne, Superstition and Throckmorton, the latter being especially prepared for the race and shipped here from Toronto, being the most fancied.

The steeplechase over the short course was marred by a mishap to Lights Out, the heavily supported favorite. Lights Out was well up with the leaders at the seventh jump, where he rushed too close to the hedge, thereby failing to clear it, and came a cropper. Archibald, his tider, was severely stunned, and the horse sustained what is thought to be a fracture of the shoulder. After the mishap eliminating Lights Out, G. R. Fortescue's Goldfielm, well ridden by Saffel, proved much the best and won easily from Butwell. The latter became havolved in serious trouble after going over the second hedge, when he struck the obstacle, with force on the allow of the shades and necks apart. High Range, under Nicol's skillful guidance lasted long enough to win from Colonel Zeb and Quantico. Sea Swell, which was considered a snart colt during the racing at New Orleans, was making his first start since leaving the southern city and showed a high turn of speed for a half, but tired in the final drive as if short.

T. C. McDowell again furnished a pair of beaten favorites in Lady Anne and Mirth. The former was at odds-on, but after racing in the lead for three furlongs tired badly and left the issue to Sally Preston, Cooney K. and Rosemount, the trio finishing in the order named.

The closing race, in which Mirth was favorite, went to Chief Hayes in a hard drive over Manhelmer and Yaddo. Crowding soon after the start caused Refined, ridden by Brannon, to fall and accounted for Mirth's poor showing.

Today's attendance was again a record breaker and, while favorites fared badly, the winners were well supported and caused the thirty-seven layers losses.

well supported and caused the thirty-seven layers losses.

Uncle Toby, which was a starter yesterday, will not be raced again this daying bowed a tendon during the running.

Barney Schreiber departed tonight for New York, from where, after a conference with other coast track magnates, he will go to his farm in Missouri, where he will prepare for shipment the strings he intends to campaign over Texas and California tracks next fall and winter.

For disobedience at the post jockey Musgrave was suspended for three days by the starter. Jockeys W. Allen and E. Stone were also fined $25 by the officials for spoiling a start in the steeplechase.

T. C. McDowell and P. Dunne will ship their horses to Lexington at the close of this meeting.

Jockey Powers' poor form displayed during the last few days is attributed to a boil on his leg he has been troubled with. He had it lanced yester-

CANADIAN BREEDING BUREAU FLOURISHES,

Ten More Horses To Be Distributed Through the Dominion This Month.

Montreal, Que., September 3.—Colonel McLaughn, of Medicine Hat, has been appointed secretary f the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding for lberta. The colonel is a man of wide experience lin, of Medicine Hat, has been appointed secretary of the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding for Alberta. The colonel is a man of wide experience in the breeding of horses and was especially selected by the war office in London when it was decided to send a man to the Canadian northwest to make a final effort at the improvement in the breed of cavalry horses. He will remain in Alberta for a year and a half at least and will devote most of his time to the work of securing good mares and crossing them with the thoroughbred.

"The National Bureau," says Colonel McLaughlin in his letter accepting the secretaryship for Alberta, "has arrived at a most opportune time. This province and Saskatchewan have been overrum with Clydes and the result is that the market has been glutted. There are just about enough lighter mares, however, to commence the breeding of a saddle and cavalry type and the conditions for developing such foals is unsurpassed. The main objection heretofore of the farmer who is asked to bring his mares to a thoroughbred stallion has been that he has not been sure of getting a suitable price for the foal in a country where work horses are most in demand. The war office, I am sure, will change this and will make it worth the farmer's while to go in for the half-bred. With a market secured, the rest should be a matter of work and business ense."

Colonel McLaughlin is ready at once to place several stallions in comfortable quarters on Alberta farms and these will be sent to him from the headquarters of the bureau in Montreal. The names of the stallions selected will be given in a few days. None but superior thoroughbreds will be sent to the west. An effort will be made to get a cheap rate of transportation from the railways, as it is easy to see that they will get their revenue when the remounts are being shipped back to the seaboard.

Delcanta will be presented to the bureau as soon as his racing days are over and Botanist will also probably close his career in the national stnd.

SEATTLE FAVORITES MUCH IN ECLIPSE.

Seattle, Wash., September 3.—This was another day when form counted for little at The Meadows. The consistent Fern L. alone saved favorite backers from utter rout by winning the Snohomish Handicap in close to track record time. Gene Russell, My Bouquet, Golden Oriole and Miss Himyar made up a quartette of public choices that failed to finish within the money. Albert Walsh, Colonel Applegate's midget jockey, had the mount on the most promising three of this quartette, and the form he showed in the saddle was bad, to say the least. He also finished last with Pedro, the heavily backed second choice of the handicap. In the fifth race, after getting away last on Miss Himyar, the best-backed favorite of the card, he was struck in the eye by a flying clod and so painfully injured that his engagement to ride John Louis in the closing race was cancelled and jockey Coburn substituted. Coburn used poor judgment and sustained a nose defeat on a horse that should have won by himself. Frank Doss departed with his stable today for San Francisco and about $20,000 loser on his betting operations here. Jockey J. McIntyre, still under suspension, went along with him. Rhodora to Get a Rest-Great Horses Safe in Argentina-Betting on St. Leger.

Lofdou, Eng., August 22.—Mr. Richard Croker has deided that Rhodora shall not be seen in public sealing until she takes part in the Turf Club Cup at the Curragh meeting next month, so that she is not likely to be sent to Doncaster.

A cablegram has been received at Newmarket an abuncing the safe arrival at Buenos Ayres of Cyllene and Polar Star, which were bought recently by the Cyllene for the two years of the Cotha (Germany) races recently. The chief event was the Thuringian Prize of 30,000 marks. Owing to a thunderstorm just before the race, which probably upset a number of the two-year-olds, the first prize was gained by an absolute outsider. Samiel, the totalizator paying out 1.878 marks for 10, whilst the placings ran 444, 1,292 and 77 for 20. Nothing like this has been known in Germany since 1900, when 1.785 for 10 were paid at Hoppegarten.

Vedas, the winner of the Two-Thousand Guineas in 1900, having been found useless for stud purboses, has been destroyed.

The latest betting on the St. Leger is: Your Majesty, 7 to 4; Ebor, 53 to 1; Signorinetta, 6 to 1; Santo Strato, 8 to 1; Norman III., 10 to 1; Bembo, 20 to 1; Abbot's Abode, 25 to 1, and Courtesy, 25 to 1.

20 to 1; Abbot's Abode, 25 to 1, and Courtesy, 25 to 1.

Owing to the death of his father, none of Albert Bendon's borses will meet their engagements for the present. An exception will, however, be made in the case of Ebor, which will fulfill his liability in the St. Leger, provided he remains fit and well up to the day of the pass.

Chevaller Ginistrell's Signorinetta, owing to some slight internal disorder, has done nothing beyond cantering exercise for the last few days, but nothing serious is feared, and it is expected that the mare will resume good work early this week.

The Deauville Grand Prize, worth about $18,000, was run at Beauville last Sunday and won by M. A. Fould's Chelkin, 4. by Jacobie—Clochette, 17, bounds, 12 to 1, in the betting and ridden by the English boy Hobbs. The favorite, Mafice II., was being time area.

Some time ago the corporation of Paisley resolved that the Silver Bells, dated 1608, which are annually raced for in that Scotch burg, and which have been valued by experts at a large sum, should be longer leave their custody, but should be merely bresented to the owner of the winner immediately after the race, and at once handed back again, the only lasting memento of each year's event being the attachment of a silver plate, bearing the names of the winning owner and horse to the handsome casket in which the bells are deposited. It is now stated, however, that the members of the corporation have decided to reseind their resolution and the bells will after certain formalities have now stated, however, that the members of the corporation have decided to rescind their resolution and the bells will, after certain formalities have been observed, he handed over to the latest winner of them.

F. J. Benson recently bought the following horses from Mr. Croker: Alabama, 2. half-sister to Orby, and Levalto, 2; also The Battler, yearling, by Lesterlin or Clonnell, out of Rhoda B., dam of Orby, with engagements, for $25,600, and a contingency of $5,000 on The Battler, Mr. Benson takes Derby. W. H. Manser, on behalf of F. J. Benson, has resold to Mr. R. Croker Alabama and Levalto with their engagements, and also cancelled the contingency of $5,000 on The Battler. Mr. Benson takes The Battler with engagements at $17,500, and Dr. McCabe will train the colt, the name of which has been changed to Emperor Napoleon.

Mr. Croker has sold Coragin Leah, 3, by Americus, out of Palm Lily, to John Widger, who was impressed by the manner in which the colt won the Doneraile Plate at Tramore last Thursday under the big impost of 136 pounds.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Racing at the Algiers merry-go-round in Jefferson Parish, near New Orleans, is to be resumed next Sunday by the Horsemen's Matinee Racing Club. The nominators to the Annual Champion, the bis-vent to be decided on the closing day of the meet ing at Sheepshead Bay, have been asked by the association for permission to reduce the guarantee value of $25,000 to $10,000.

Charles Ellison has put his stable away for the year. He has sent his horses, the best of which value of $25,000 to $10,000.

Charles Ellison has put his stable away for the year. He has sent his horses, the best of which is the sprinter, Jacobite, to John Hynes' nursery at Stamford, Conn., and released George Brazier, his trainer, for the time being.

At the Toronto, Ont., sale Tuesday of the Cedar Farm horses, Harry Giddings bought the broodmare Lady Lightfoot II., dam of Wire In. War Whoop, Wicklight and Flying Arrow for $100, and R. Worthington got Al Powell for $200 and Morocco for $110.

Broadside, the Star Shoot—Marina colt, for which L. A. Cella gave $6,500 last June at the Clay sale, lass not earned one dollar this season and seems to be of little account. He has run in eight races and lately seems to have a talent for running fourth, though he has shown some improvement.

Celt is preparing for his stake engagements at Sheepshead Bay. He worked one and one-half miles in 2:41 Wednesday and did it eagerly. Celt is in the Century Stakes, September Stakes, Flight Stakes and Ahnual Champion Stakes. Ballot is his engagement companion only in the Century and Annual Champion.

Benner, Cincinnati, O. Added starters only crop up in stake races to which they were nominated regularly at the advertised date of closing for entries. Any horse thus entered has the right to start up to a certain time on the day of the race, whether it was sent out overnight as a probable starter or not. A man having a horse entered cannot scratch it and substitute another that was not also regularly entered. Added starters count for nothing in handbook betting unless it is the rule of the book and notifies his patrons of the rule.

Winner—Br. c, by Galore—Matterhorn (trained by J. Garson);
Went to post at 2.56. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
High Range, a quick beginner, outbroke the others, dashed to the front and set a fast pace all the way, but tired at the end and just lasted long enough to stall off Colonel Zeb. The latter came to the outside on the turn into the homestretch and, funishing with a rush, would have won in another stride. Quantico, on the inside all the way, saved ground on every turn and finished fast. Sea Swell showed superior speed.

Went to post at 258. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handly, second and third driving caller led under a pull to the stretch, but tired slightly in the closing strides. Pirate, allways in nearest and lost persistent pursuit of the pacemaker, was wearing him down slowly at the end. Ramrod ran well between jumps and lost ground in jumping, but finished well. Paprika was within striking distance for a mile and a half, then thred badly. Navago and Javanese were both driving from the start to keep within striking distance for the first mile. Went to post at 3:53. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Half sained speed, but probably was lucky. Big Chief, injudiciously reserved in leisurely nursuit of the pacemaker from the start, failed to get up in a belated stretch effort and practically swerved into defeat, fast going third in a cracking effort. Ben Ban broke slowly, but quickly got into forward pursuit and uppaced. Tourenne dropped to the rear early and made up some ground, but ran a bad race.

At that time Hayward was in the meridian of 1875. At that time Hayward was in the meridian of his fame as a rider. It is noteworthy that the majority of the capable jockeys riding in this country at that time were English lads. Besides Hayward, George Barber, "Polly" Teakes, "Cottontop" Hughes and George Evans were in high repute, and really dominated the entire situation. Of them all, Hayward lasted longest in competition with such coming American star riders as Jimmy McLaughlin, "Snapper" Garrison, Isaac Murphy and "Daredevil" Fitzpatrick, guidding a Futurity winner as late as 1892, when he rode Morello to victory.
